

December Newsletter

Welcome to the December edition of our school newsletter. The countdown to the Christmas holidays is on and school is a very busy place!

The RULES

Break the Rules Day

Our Break the Rules day raised an amazing £633. The money raised will be added to school funds and used to buy learning resources. Thank you for your wonderful support!

Open Day

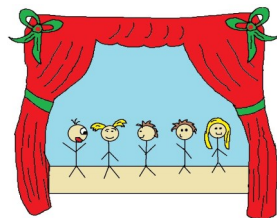

On Friday 30th November we held our school Open Day. It was great to welcome families and future pupils into our school for a look around our classrooms and facilities.

Christmas Dinner

We have Christmas dinner in school on Friday 7th December. Party food is on the menu and school is sure to be full of festive cheer!

Thanks go to Mrs Farmer, Mrs Carroll and Miss McFarland for all their hard work in preparing our school dinners throughout the year.

Christmas Concert

We will be having our Christmas Concert in school on Tuesday 11th December @ 10 am and Wednesday 12th December @ 7 pm. The programme will include:

- P1—3—Because it is Christmas
- P4 & 5—Hallelujah
- P6 & P7—Aladdin Trouble

All children will be taking part. Tickets are on sale now. We hope to see you there.

School Disco

The Support Group is holding a disco

on Thursday 20th December.

The times for the disco are as follows:

P1 – 4 from 6:30 – 7:30 pm

P5 – 7 from 7:45 – 9:00 pm

Christmas Holidays

School finishes on Friday 21st December @ 12.30 pm.

Please note there will be no B.A.S.H. on this date. School will recommence on Monday 7th January.

Swimming

Primary 7 will be starting swimming lessons at Dunganon Leisure Centre on Wednesday 9th January for 5 weeks.
